Dear Mr. Paul:

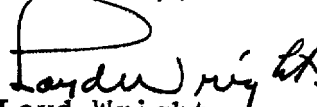

There is attached an interrogatory pertaining to your agency's document classification program. The information furnished will be treated as part of the study of the Commission on Government Security authorized by Public Law 304 - 84th Congress.

All questions should be answered, but where numbers are involved, estimates will be acceptable.

In view of the temporary nature of the Commission, it would be appreciated if prompt attention is given this inquiry and answers forwarded to the Commission as they become available.

If any further information is required or clarification of any of the problems posed by this question is desirable, please contact Mr. Edward W. Hassell, STerling 3-5200, extension 4137, a member of our staff.

Sincerely,

Loyd Wright
Chairman
